

Key process description

- A key process in Araba is how a user will ask a question, read answers from experts and then mark the response that gave them the solution

Key process diagram

1) User will post a question

2) Experts will post responses
to the users question

3) Other experts will comment
on responses

4) The user will be able to select the response that provides the solution

Question post page

Users post containing question

Account

Response 1

Comment on response 1

Comment on response 1

Response 2

Comment on response 2